

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

We need diversified media ownership to protect what is left of our democracy. Homogenized, vanilla media is a threat to our freedoms, our rights to free speech.
